AFTER

Screening & Panel on March 19, 2026

Ed Roberts Campus, 3075 Adeline St., Berkeley, CA 94703

4:30 Reception | 5:30 Screening | 7:15 Panel

Life After is a 2025 American documentary film that explores the story of Elizabeth Bouvia, who in 1983 sought the legal right to die. Life After is a rallying cry for people with disabilities to be in control of their lives, and examines the political and social structures that surround and control people with disabilities.

The screening will be followed by a panel discussion moderated by DREDF's Executive Director, Michelle Uzeta. The panelists are:

- Reid Davenport, Director of Life After
- Anita Cameron, Disability Justice Activist
- Michael Bien, Founding Partner of Rosen Bien Galvan & Grunfeld LLP
